Dutch Skies 360° HDRI - Limited Edition Print - 002?

This could be the next available
Dutch Skies 360° HDRI - Limited Edition Print - 002

Its not decided yet.
Please note its a preview version so the colors and some parts on the image can look differet in the final print.

More possible preview's:

On the next pages you can see some other previews of possible future Dutch Skies 360° HDRI - Limited & Exclusive Edition Prints

Some important notes regarding the previews on the next pages:

- Also available for Dutch Skies 360° HDRI - Exclusive Edition Prints
 - The previews are quickly rendered from just one exposure.
 - No color correction yet
 - White balance can be some different then in the final print
- The cloud formation in previews may be a bit different in the final sky due to masking methods etc.
 - No bird or any other retouch has been done yet
- It's possible (but happens not often) a sky is un-stitchable.

Example differences one exposure & final print

To show how big the differences can be between a one exposure preview render and the final print:

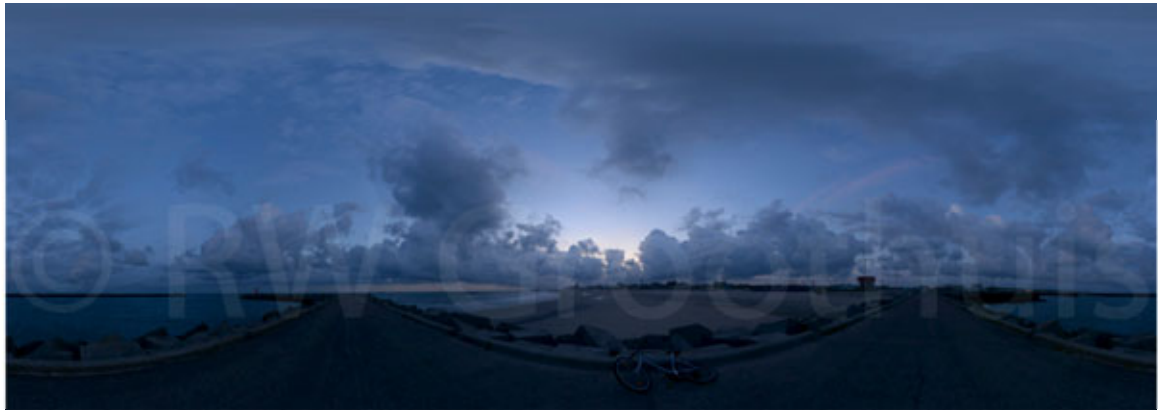

The panorama above is rendered from just one exposure.

The panorama below is the final panorama for the print.
